Hurricane Irma - Update on Relief Efforts and Resumption of Normal Office Hours

Who: Leon County Supervisor of Elections
What: Relief Efforts and Resumption of Normal Business Hours:
Wednesday, September 13, 2017
When: Immediately
Where: Leon County Election Center, 2990-1 Apalachee Parkway

In partnership with the American Red Cross, Leon County Government, and the City of Tallahassee, the Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office and staff continue to serve those struggling with the effects of the recent storm.

Our logistical resources and expertise, so important in conducting successful elections, has been put in service to those seeking refuge here in our county. Our facility has been a focal point in the distribution of relief supplies for shelters all around our area, and our fleet of backup generators is currently powering many of the traffic lights at critical intersections in Tallahassee.

Now that weather conditions have improved following Hurricane Irma, our office will resume normal business hours on Wednesday, 9/13 from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm.

Also please note, all M8 Campaign Treasurer's Report covering the period 8/01/17 to 8/31/17 are due Wednesday, 9/13 at 11:59 pm.
