All registered voters in the City of Tallahassee are eligible to elect City Commissioners.

Term begins on the 13th day after the General Election.

If two or more persons qualify as candidates as provided for in section 7-5 for any of the places to be filled, then a municipal primary election shall be held for election for all vacancies wherein more than one candidate is thus qualified, and for such place where only one candidate has thus qualified such candidate shall be declared by the City Commission to be elected to such vacancy and the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the municipal primary election ballot. The candidate who shall receive a majority of votes in such municipal primary election in a respective group shall be elected to such vacancy. If no candidate shall receive a majority vote in such primary election in a respective group then the two candidates who shall receive the greatest vote in such primary election in their respective group shall be on the following regular municipal election ballot for such vacancy.

Any vacancy in the Commission, including the office of Mayor, shall be filled by appointment until the following regular municipal election. Any vacancy occurring after the close of qualifying for a regular municipal election in which no candidate has qualified, shall be filled by appointment until the next regularly scheduled biennial election. The term of Commissioners appointed to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term of the position vacated. Any vacancy resulting from a recall election shall be filled in the manner provided for in such cases by the Florida Statutes. If any vacancy is not filled within twenty (20) days after it shall have occurred, an appointment to fill the vacancy shall be made by the governor.
