ELECTION GUIDE

2020 PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY • MARCH 17, 2020

A Message from Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections

The 2020 Elections

The 2020 Presidential Election year might well mark the most important elections of our times. Coincidentally, 2020 commemorates the passage of several landmark amendments that greatly expanded the voting rights of our fellow citizens.

One hundred and fifty years ago, the ratification of the 15th Amendment granted African American men the right to vote. One hundred years ago, the 19th Amendment gave voting rights to women. And this year marks the first round of elections since the passage of Amendment 4 in Florida, which automatically restores the voting rights of most of Florida's convicted felons who have completed their court ordered sentences.

Each of these amendments greatly expanded the numbers of citizens who were eligible to vote, and each of these amendments were passed only after long, difficult struggles. Those struggles were important because the right to vote is important – arguably the most important right our citizens can claim.

#Protect2020 Initiative

With that importance in mind, I pledge to you that this office will work tirelessly to protect your vote from outside interference and will conduct elections in a fair, accurate, and transparent manner. That is why we are actively partnering with other elections and security agencies at all levels of government in the #Protect2020 initiative. Threats to elections are constantly evolving, so protecting your vote requires constant vigilance, innovation, adaptation, and communication among the many local, state, and federal agencies tasked with ensuring the integrity of your vote.

#TrustedInfo2020 Initiative

We are also joining elections officials around the nation in the #TrustedInfo2020 initiative whose goal is to encourage voters to use their local election offices as the authoritative source for reliable election information. Our adversaries are doing their best to divide our people and undermine trust in elections by spreading outright lies and misinformation. Please contact us through any of the communication methods listed below if you see something that concerns you and we will do our best to help. And, please be mindful of what you read, tag, or post on social media and exercise patience with those that may disagree with your views. Our country is strongest when our people are united.

I hope you find this Election Guide to be a useful resource as you prepare to vote in the upcoming election. Your thoughtful participation in our nation's elections is crucial to its continuing success.

See you at the polls!

What is the Presidential Preference Primary?

The 2020 Presidential Preference Primary Election (PPP) is part of the nominating process in Florida for the United States presidential elections. In the PPP, voters registered with one of Florida's major political parties express their preference for the presidential candidate they would like to see representing their party on the General Election ballot in November.

After the PPP, designated political party delegates from Florida formally nominate the preferred presidential candidate at the respective party's national convention. These national conventions are typically held in July or August. Based on the party rules governing delegate voting procedures, the party decides at the convention which presidential candidate will represent their party on the General Election ballot.

Florida conducts closed primary elections. This means that only voters registered with one of the major political parties are eligible to vote in the PPP.

If you were registered to vote in Florida with one of Florida's major political parties by the February 18 registration deadline, you are eligible to vote in the Presidential Preference Primary Election.

Voters may track their Provisional Ballot status at LeonVotes.org or by contacting our office at (850) 606-8683 Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 5 pm.
