Voter Registration and Party Change Deadline: Tuesday February 18th for the 2020 Presidential Preference Primary Election

Leon County, FL – Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections for Leon County, reminds Leon County Citizens that Tuesday, February 18th is the last day to register to vote or to change political party affiliation in time for the March 17th Presidential Preference Primary Election (PPP).

“I encourage all eligible Leon County Citizens who wish to participate in the PPP to register to vote or update their voter registration record.” said Supervisor Earley. “Voters have several options to register in Leon County, and my office will hold extended hours of operation on February 18th to ensure that all eligible Citizens have the opportunity to register.”

Voters may register or change political party in time for the PPP using these methods:

- Online at www.LeonVotes.org/ovr (complete by 11:59 pm on February 18th).
- Mail a voter registration form to PO Box 7357, Tallahassee, FL 32314-7357 (must be postmarked by February 18th).
- Visit the Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office at 2990-1 Apalachee Parkway (corner of Apalachee Pkwy and Capital Circle SE). The office will be open on Monday, February 17th during normal business hours. Office hours are extended to 8:00 pm on Tuesday, February 18th.
- Visit a participating Registration Branch Site or Voter Registration Agency.

Since Florida is a closed primary state, only voters registered with either the Florida Democratic Party or the Republican Party of Florida can vote in the PPP. Voters can view their current voter registration information, including party affiliation, by going to www.LeonVotes.org and clicking on the "Your Voter Info" button.

Voters with questions are encouraged to call the Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office at (850) 606-8683, Monday – Friday 8:30 am – 5:00 pm.

1 The voter registration deadline normally falls on the 29th day before an election. However, since February 17th is Washington’s Birthday, a legal holiday in Florida, the voter registration deadline is moved to the next day, February 18th.
